SONG: Amazing Grace

THANKSGIVING

CONFESSION

Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
We have sinned against you
And against our fellow men,
In thought and word and deed,
In the evil we have done
And in the good we have not done,
Through ignorance, through weakness,
Through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
Who died for us,
Forgive us all that is past;
And grant that we may serve you
In newness of life
To the glory of your name. Amen.

Luke 8:22-25 (ESV)

²² One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, “Let us go across to the other side of the lake.” So they set out, ²³ and as they sailed he fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water and were in danger. ²⁴ And they went and woke him, saying, “Master, Master, we are perishing!” And he awoke and rebuked the wind and the raging waves, and they ceased, and there was a calm. ²⁵ He said to them, “Where is your faith?” And they were afraid, and they marvelled, saying to one another, “Who then is this, that he commands even winds and water, and they obey him?”

How can we have real hope?

1. Jesus is the Divine Saviour who will calm all this world’s storms

The Divine Saviour of the Psalms

The Divine Saviour of Jonah 1 who brings peace through judgment

(and the prophet of Jonah 1 who absorbs the judgment)

2. So we can trust Him in the midst of our storms

COFFEE QUESTIONS:

In what ways is our society lacking in hope at the moment? How does this passage help you have real hope?

What difference does it make knowing that Jesus is not just the Lord who will one day calm every storm, but that He’s also “the true Jonah” who was submerged under the waves for us?
