

Name: _____ Officers - Hearts and hands

This week, we're discovering: 1 Peter 1:13-21

FIND IT

Let's see what the Bible says!

Peter has a big command for this passage.

Can you find it? 1 Peter 1:13

So _____ your _____ for service and have self-control.
____ your _____ should be for the gift of _____
that will be yours when _____ comes again.

Draw. What will a Christian hope for?

1 Peter 1:13

THE PAST

What were we like in the past?
Join up the bubbles in the right order.

1 Peter 1:14

In the past

so you did you wanted.

the evil things

understand,

you did not

BUT NOW

But what are we we like now?

Join up the bubbles in the right order.

1 Peter 1:14

But now

So what? How do we live as God's children? 1 Peter 1:15-16
Circle the right words.

"But be hairy/holy/happy in nothing/all
that you do,

just as God is not/ sometimes is/is holy.

God is the One who called/remembered/forgot you.

It is written in the Sky/Internet/Scriptures:

you must be hairy/happy/holy,
because I am not/am sometimes/am holy."

How much is our Father God holy? Circle.

Never.

Sundays.

Always!

So, how much should we, his children be holy? Circle.

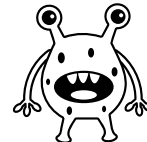

Never.

On October 10th, for 30 minutes.

Only on Sundays.

Always!

Can you match the children to their father?

A Christian

GOD

THINK IT

Why was this written?

Some people in Peter's day were being nasty to Christians.
How do you think the Christians felt about this? Circle.

People were nasty to Christians, because they lived differently.
Why do you think Peter tells them to live differently? To be holy?

Can you draw a Christian living differently from everyone else?

BONUS QUESTION:
What does holy mean?

LIVE IT

So what?

Peter is telling us to be holy to!

How might our lives be a little bit like the Christian's Peter was writing to?

Draw. What can we remember, when we don't want to live differently, as God's children?

Imagine people are calling your friend horrible names for living differently as a Christian,
what from these verses could you say to you friend?

PRAY IT

Let's pray about this passage:

- What can we thank God for?
- What can we ask for help knowing and living?

Dear Father...

In Jesus' name I pray, amen.
