

Can you draw someone being freed from prison?
How do they feel?

FREEDOM FOR THE CAPTIVES!

The servant brings GOOD NEWS. What is it?
Unscramble. Isaiah 61:1

“He has sent me to ____ the _____ they are ____.”
letl pctavise refe

He has sent me to etll the srosipnre that they are elasedre."

Draw. Where were the Israelites because of their sin? Hint: E.....

What is the servant announcing first?
Underline. Isaiah 61:2

“He has hidden/sent me to announce the joke/time when the Lord will show his anger/kindness.”

But what would the servant announce second??
Underline. Isaiah 61:2

“and the story/time when our God will ignore/punish evil/nice people.”

How would sad people feel when they hear this news?
Find the right letters. Isaiah 61:2

“He has sent me to _____.”

THINK IT

FREEDOM FOR THE CAPTIVES!

What time would it be first when they heard this news?

anger/kindness

What time would it be second when they heard this news?

punishing evil/ignoring evil

Out of 10, how comforted would the Israelites feel hearing this news, why??

_ _ /10

How might someone feel who didn't know the Lord, why??

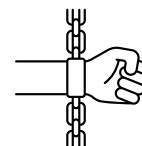

LIVE IT

What is the Lord Jesus' news? Hint  Luke 4:17-19 (What time is it now??)

We don't need freedom from Exile in Babylon, what do we need freedom from?

What does the time now and coming mean for us? For our friends/ family?

PRAY IT

Let's pray about this passage.

What can we,

- Praise God for?
- Thank God for?
- Say sorry to God for?
- Ask God for?

Dear Father...

In Jesus' name I pray, amen.