

Officers - Hearts and hands

What does this mean for us?

GRACE CHURCH
GREENWICH
SUNDAY SCHOOL

The true story can be found in: Joshua 2:1-24

FIND IT OUT

Draw lines to match the right boxes.

Who heard about what the Lord had done? Joshua 2:1, 9

Promise that you'll save me and my family!

How did they feel when they heard this news? Joshua 2:10-11

Tie the red rope in the window, bring all your family into your house.

Who becomes one of the coolest women in the Bible?

To keep everyone safe who stays in this house

What did Rahab ask? Joshua 2:12-13

Rahab, and the people of Jericho.

What do the spies say that Rahab had to do? Joshua 2:17-19

Rahab, she's so brave! Wow!

What do the spies promise? Joshua 2:19

Afraid and very frightened!

WORK IT OUT

Read Joshua 6:20-23.

Hang on, who was saved when Jericho was destroyed? (Circle your answers)

All the pet hamsters.

All the people who were good enough.

Rahab.

All the people who didn't like God.

All Rahab's family in her house.

God's special-holy people, the Israelites, belonged to God.

But how was Rahab different to the Israelites, and like everyone who lived in Jericho?

Rahab was a sinful woman, and not one of God's people.

So why did God save even Rahab and her family? Is that fair?

LIVE IT OUT

Let's see what this means for us.

What does the Bible say we all need to be rescued from?
(Romans 3:23-25 can help)

But, we're not saved by a red rope!

How can we be super-duper certain that we can be saved too?

Even someone sinful and different like Rahab can become part of God's people!

Why is this good news for you?

And why is this good news even for people we might not expect to become part of God's people?

Would God want to save people who smell funny, look different, and who have never been to Sunday school??

SUPER BONUS PART: Now turn to Hebrews 11:1-2, 30-31

How did Rahab show she really trusted in the Lord?

How do we show that we trust in the Lord? Hebrews 12:1

PRAY IT

Let's pray about this passage:

- What can we thank God for?
- What can we ask for help knowing and living?

Dear Father...

Amen.
