Officers - Hearts and hands

This week, we're discovering: Matthew 5:38-48

FIND IT

WE LOVE OUR ENEMIES

Can you draw a person/animal who looks/acts a lot like their dad??

Jesus says something different to other people.

Whom did the Pharisees say we should love? Solve the scramble. 5:43

"____ your _____ and ____ your _____."
ovel hgouriebn ehat ieeemsn

But whom did Jesus say we should love? Solve the scramble. 5:44

"But I tell you, ____ your _____. ____ for those who ____ you."
ovel ieeemsn aryp tuhr

Can you draw whom our Father in Heaven loves? 5:45

Can you draw how our Father in Heaven loves them? 5:45

So whom will we be like, if we love all kinds of people? Circle the answer. 5:44-45

"If you do this, then you will be..."

different true sons

of your

Father Teacher

in Heaven.

Can you draw how we might love someone, even an enemy?

THINK IT

WE LOVE OUR ENEMIES

So, whom does our Father in Heaven love? Circle.

London people

Far away people

His friends

His enemies

But whom do the people without God love? Circle. 5:47

Their enemies

Their friends

So, whom are we like when we love our friends and our enemies. Circle.

People without God

Smelly people

Our Father
in heaven.

Bad people

LIVE IT

What might someone do/say that makes it hard to love them?

How did Jesus love his enemies and his friends?

What can we remember about our Father in Heaven next time we don't want to love someone?

PRAY IT

Let's pray about this passage.

What can we,

- Praise God for?
- Thank God for?
- Say sorry to God for?
- Ask God for?

Dear Father...

In Jesus' name I pray, amen.
